Sir:

Responsive to the Office Action dated November 26, 2002, kindly amend the above-identified application as follows:

In the Specification:

Please replace the paragraph beginning at line 22 of page 2 with the following rewritten paragraph:

With the foregoing and other objects in view, there is provided, in accordance with the invention, a circuit configuration. The circuit configuration includes an intelligent power semiconductor having a single diagnostic output, a load output, a logic element, and a power switch. The power switch switches a load, a current
